

Citing a Magazine article (Print)

When citing a magazine, include the page(s) of the entire article if they are consecutive. If the article continues to nonconsecutive pages use a + after the first page.

- Last name, first name, followed by a period and a space.
- Title of article in “quotation marks” followed by a period, in quotation marks.
- Name of magazine in italics followed by a space
- Date of publication in DD Month (YYYY) format (if full date is available) followed by a colon and a space.
- Page(s) cited followed by a period.
- Type the word Print followed by a period.

Examples:

Berwick, Carly. "Why Have There Been No Great Women Comic-Book Artists?"
ArtNews (2005): 166 - 169. Print.

Frakes, Dan. "Mac Gems." MacWorld January (2006): 52+. Print.

Note: Please be sure to ‘Reverse Indent’ the second line of a citation.

To reverse indent, hold down the Control key and press the Tab key. Do you agree that this and the next line are reversed indented?
